PURPOSE AND ROLE

The Australian Journal of Dementia Care (AJDC) is the first and only multidisciplinary journal in Australia for all professional and community carers of people living with dementia.

It offers a forum in the challenging field of dementia care and fills a vital niche providing relevant, practical, high-quality and well-researched solutions for dementia care settings, presented by practitioners, researchers and other experts in the field of dementia care from Australia and around the world.

There is a strong emphasis on 'knowledge translation', which closes the gap between research into dementia care and provides practical, positive outcomes for carers, those living with dementia and healthcare staff. Topics include care practice, clinical updates, research, resources, training, technology and news.

The AJDC is published by the University of Wollongong (UOW) and managed by Dementia Training Australia (DTA). The Editorial Team includes Co-Editors Professor Belinda Goodenough (Executive Director DTA), Associate Professor Lyn Phillipson (Principal Research Fellow, UOW) and Dr Louisa Smith (Research Fellow, UOW, Australian Health Services Research Institute), Managing Editor Kerry Schelks and Contributing Editor Catherine Ross. They are supported by the following Editorial Advisors:

- Dr Marita Chisholm, Innovation and Projects Manager Older Persons Health, Rural Northwest Health, Victoria.
- Mr Dennis Frost, person living with dementia and dementia advocate; Chair of the Southern Dementia Advisory Group, Kiama, NSW; Dementia Australia Dementia Advisory Committee member.
